

OFFICIAL COMPETITION RULES

BACKGROUND

The National Association for Multi-ethnicity in Communications (NAMIC) Excellence in Multicultural Marketing Awards (EMMA) recognize the top marketing tactics and campaigns targeted to multicultural audiences.

The EMMA is comprised of two elements:

- 1) Integrated Marketing Campaigns utilizing a minimum of two different types of media for efforts to acquire and retain culturally diverse customers through integrated, multi-platform marketing, operational, community and public relations, and/or diversity awareness.
- 2) Marketing Tactics in the categories of direct marketing, diversity awareness, digital, experiential marketing, film/video, guerrilla, out of home, premium, print, OTT/streaming, radio, social media, television, and all other media. Each type of tactic will be judged as a separate category.

Each element will have four divisions of competition:

Division I – Media Content Creators and Distributors

The category is open to all operators at the corporate, division, region or system level; marketing co-ops; or broadband distributors.

Division II – Networks and Communications Suppliers

The Networks and Industry Suppliers category includes but is not limited to terrestrial broadcasters, networks, content aggregators and providers, movie studios, independent production companies, agencies, technology companies, equipment developers and providers, consultants, over the top subscription services and other suppliers to the communications industry.

Division III – Brands

The competition is open to all individuals, companies and organizations not represented in Division I or II involved in producing any marketing and communication materials for external or internal audiences.

Division IV – Other

This category is open to those organizations not represented in Divisions I, II or III.

ELIGIBILITY

We invite you to submit marketing efforts that were first used, published or aired between June 1, 2016 and May 31, 2017.

ENTRY FEES

There is a non-refundable fee of $375 for each entry. One may enter the same ad/campaign in more than one category; however, each entry will be charged $375.

JUDGING

COMPLETED ENTRIES MUST BE RECEIVED BY NAMIC BY 11:59 PM EDT ON FRIDAY, JUNE 23, 2017. Incomplete entries or entries received late will not be judged. Please note entries will not be returned.

A panel of industry marketing experts chosen by NAMIC will evaluate all entries. The judges in each entry category will determine the number of winners. Since each entry is judged against a standard of excellence and not against other entries, there may not be a winner in every category.

Winners will be acknowledged at the 31st Annual NAMIC Conference, scheduled for September 26 - 27 at the New York Marriott Marquis in New York, NY. Select winning entries will be profiled in CableFAX: The Magazine. Winners will also be recognized on the “past winners” section of emmacompetition.com, namic.com, NAMIC’s Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram, Twitter and YouTube pages.

The quantitative and/or qualitative results information will solely be viewed by the judges and not shared publicly as part of the EMMA awards presentation.

INTEGRATED MARKETING CAMPAIGNS CATEGORY

Integrated marketing campaign awards recognize efforts in integrated, multi-platform marketing, operational, community, public relations and diversity awareness efforts to acquire and retain culturally diverse customers, talent, business and community partners.

We invite you to submit integrated marketing efforts that were first used between June 1, 2016 and May 31, 2017.

This is an integrated marketing campaign competition and entries will be evaluated based on strategy development, implementation and analysis of results. Valid entries might include, but are not limited to: Promotional campaigns, programming/tier launches, ad sales, community/public relations initiatives, diversity awareness campaigns, retail or media tie-ins, segmentation efforts, on-air tactics, packaging concepts, employee incentives, guerrilla, operational improvement efforts or other innovative approaches to multicultural marketing.

A campaign must target one or more cultural groups e.g. ethnicity, LBGTQ, disability, etc.

You may pull one element from an integrated marketing campaign entry and re-enter it separately in the marketing tactics category under the appropriate single medium.

MARKETING TACTICS CATEGORY

Awards in this category will recognize excellence in developing individual tactics for ethnic and culturally targeted marketing.

We invite you to submit marketing materials that were first used between June 1, 2016 and May 31, 2017.

Categories include:

- Direct Marketing
- Diversity Awareness
- Digital (includes GPS, mobile, websites, online ads, and podcasts)

Evaluation Criteria

Evaluation will be primarily based on assessment of strategy, implementation and results. The emphasis is on documented results – this is an integrated marketing campaign, not a creative competition. Entry should contain a minimum of two different integrated media.

---

- Sound or innovative strategy
- Strength of creative execution against the strategy
- Results and how they can be duplicated and/or scaled

All entries and materials submitted will not be returned or acknowledged. Except where prohibited by law, entry submission grants NAMIC and CableFAX: The Magazine the right in perpetuity to reproduce, publish, use, edit, adjust and modify the entry in any way, in any and all media, without limitation and without compensation to entrant. NAMIC and CableFAX: The Magazine may publish an entry submitted by any entrant. If an entry is selected for publishing, it does not create a confidential relationship between the entrant and NAMIC, CableFAX: The Magazine or any of their respective affiliates or subsidiaries.
